

Don't Throw Me Away I Belong to A.A.

Housed in the Archives are early artifacts, correspondence and other historically informative materials of our Fellowship.

They are gathered, organized, indexed, protected, preserved and made available to interested members and students/researchers of A.A. history.

You can help build our local Archives by making your own early books, pamphlets, A.A. correspondence and related mementos available to the local archives center in your area. You might also record an oral history. Tell us on tape what the first contact you had with A.A. was like--your first meeting, sponsor, Twelfth Step call, whatever. If it is important to you, it is important to us all.

If you wish to share in this way, a call to our Committee will assure help in recording your thoughts and gathering your gifts to your archival center. Your personal legacy can become a very real and inspiring part of A.A. through the ages.
